MINDS THAT CREATE , HEARTS THAT TUFT

ALANKRIT

Alankrit is a textile collection inspired by ornamental detailing, vertical textures, and refined linear compositions. The design combines weathered surface patterns with a bold central accent, creating a balance between simplicity and richness. The layered textures and rhythmic lines give the surface a contemporary yet crafted character.

Inspired by decorative borders, metallic inlays, architectural columns, and woven textile structures, the collection transforms minimal linear forms into a sophisticated visual language that reflects elegance, contrast, and understated luxury.
